- 4002 Panama-Portovelo-Cartagena-Santa Marta-Riohacha Route 1807c.: Cover endorsed "Admon de Correos de Hacha" at lower left mailed to Santa Fé de Bogotá to the Director of the Astronomical Observatory; struck with two line HACHA / FRANCA (Tizon 4 = EXT) with, above, framed patriotic VIVA / FERNANDO / VII, both in black (Tizon 2 = EXT). No rate marks and possibly carried officially without charge. An extraordinary and rare cover.
- 4003 1816 (Feb 16): Entire letter from Portovelo to Panamá, distance 26 leagues / 145 kms., struck with contracted PORTOVELO handstamp in red-brown. No notation of rate but under ½ ounce and thus postage would have been 1½ reales. Interesting contents regarding a large shipment of silver. The earliest recorded usage of this handstamp and unique during the Colonial period although sent during the Revolutionary period.

Colombian Air Mail 1919-1930

William Knox Martin Experimental Flight 1919 from Barranquilla to Puerto Colombia

The 1917 current 2 centavos carmine-rose was overprinted in 10 definable types horizontally, the sheet being cut into strips prior to sale, thus vertical multiples and blocks cannot exist. Eugenio Gebauer and Jairo Londoño de Tamayo believed there to be 200 examples printed, Dr. Hugo Goeggel & Carlos Valenzuela project a total of 300 examples printed. There were 160 letters carried on the First Flight on June 18, 1919, the mail being dropped at Puerto Colombia and the plane returning to Barranquilla without test landing. Either mint or used, these stamps represent some of the great rarities of Airmail philately.
